Zeus, Athene, Hermes, Demeter, Apollo, Aphrodite--these mythological figures reflect the diversity of the Greek civilization. So do Ramona's students reflect the well balanced and widely varied field of academics and activities of their school. Just as the Greeks looked to mythology for an explanation of natural phenomena and for the source of mundane occurances, so can the Ramonians look to the Aries as their oracle for the record of what has happened and the story of their victory of defeat, success or failure at Ramona, their own Mt. Olympus. Led by the campus heroes and heroines who have become so familiar to us through their capable leadership, we have prospered, leaving our mark of achievement in arts, sciences and athletic contests. The Aries is the tale of the people, places and events that make up the myth of our time--that of Ramona 1967-1968.

robert d. kutch

Everyone's life is affected by the people they meet. Some leave a deep, indelible mark that visibly promotes a change. Others have only a slight effect, but the impression is still there.

Few people have the opportunity to touch as many lives as did Mr. Kutch. Still fewer take it when offered. But Mr. Kutch took advantage of this opportunity and made a deep impression on the lives of everyone he met.

Perhaps it was his strong determination and stubbornness, or the sincere concern about his students that made him such a remarkable person. Or it could have been his realization that each person has a handicap, although not always as apparent as his own. He strove to help people overcome these weaknesses, using himself as an example of achievement. He believed in helping students help themselves and achieved this end by working inconspicuously in the background, but ready to supply the needed encouragement and advice.

Mr. Kutch was an optimist and an idealist; a devoted and dedicated teacher. He lived the life he liked the most, teaching how to be a better person. He tried to impress his students with strong ideals to help them in the future. The best description of his efforts would be the motto found in his room: "To try and not succeed is not to fail: the failure is not trying."

The impressions Mr. Kutch made upon his students' lives are sustaining and cannot be erased. Such people can never really die: they live forever in the hearts and memories of those who knew them. This is the best tribute and memorial which could be given to any man.

There was a vacancy in Ramona's faculty for the major portion of this school year, for on November 11, 1967, while accompanying speech students to Student Congress, Robert D. Kutch died of a heart attack. He was devoting out of school time as he had so often done. Speech trips throughout California and Arizona occupied nearly all of his weekends, but it was this work that he loved and enjoyed. As an educator for thirty-seven years, Mr. Kutch was aware of student needs and desires.

It is interesting to note, however, that Mr. Kutch was not only a speech coach but competent in many fields. He graduated from high school in Salem, Oregon, and continued his education at Williamette University School of Law, where in 1927 he received his LLB degree. He earned his Bachelor's degree there four years later and went to Stanford University to complete his Masters in 1939. Also while in college, he earned his letters in football, basketball, and in cross-country despite his physical handicap of the loss of one arm.

His teaching career began right out of college. Coming to Southern California he taught in Corona until 1942, was counselor at Poly High until 1956 when he became Director of Guidance here at Ramona. When an opening occurred Mr. Kutch returned to teaching American Government and coaching speech students.

Not only did Mr. Kutch devote much of his time to education, he also was very active in many civic organizations throughout the community.

Born July 3, 1906, Mr. Kutch lived an active and influential sixty-one years until his death. It is with pride that Ramona High School looks back to the teaching and accomplishments of Robert D. Kutch.

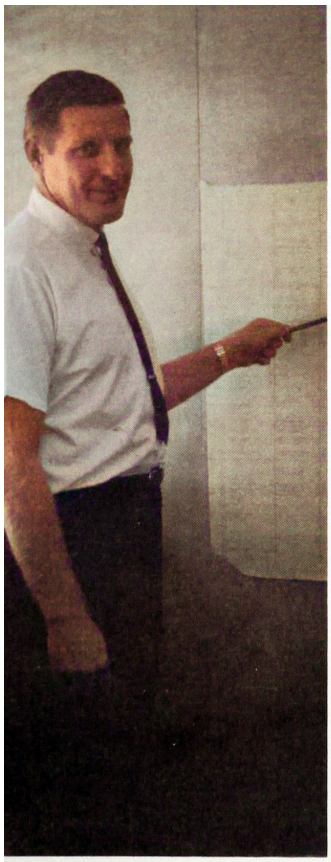
Mr. Esgate pauses for a picture as he enters the Administration Office.

Ramona High School's progress is related to the past, present, and future. Mr. Esgate relates the past through good relationships previously established. He makes the most of the present by interest in students, parents, faculty, and campus activities. The list is endless as his work progresses. Constantly evaluating the school, he can foresee the needs and opportunities of the future. Mr. Esgate is always willing to meet his ever-mounting tasks with calm assurance and true dedication that makes him our capable principal.

board of education

Riverside Unified School District is proud to have six leading citizens of our city represent them on the Board of Education. They solve our vital problems with assurance. Many problems such as finances and integration come under their realm. They devote time and effort unselfishly to Ramona and to our community.

Members are: Mr. Bruce Miller, Dr. Vernon Stern, Mr. Arthur Littleworth, Mrs. Maxine Frost, Mr. Rae Sharp, Mrs. Evelyn Kendrick.



Mr. Williams - Vice Principal

Mr. Williams' smile relieves tension and encourages parents as he deals with the male segment of the student body. In addition to this, he is in charge of our athletic supplies.

Mrs. Emanuel - Dean of Girls

A pleasant conversation with Mrs. Emanuel is a relief to parents. Many girls can easily chat with her as her years of experience give way to an understanding ear. Mrs. Emanuel is also adviser to the Girls' League.

Mr. Devine - Director of Student Activities

Student Activities involve myriads of tasks. Mr. Devine dives into these student government problems with an understanding and open mind. Certainly the most common way to get a word with this fellow is to interrupt his current interruption. But don't worry, activities are kept well under control for the benefit of all under his guidance.

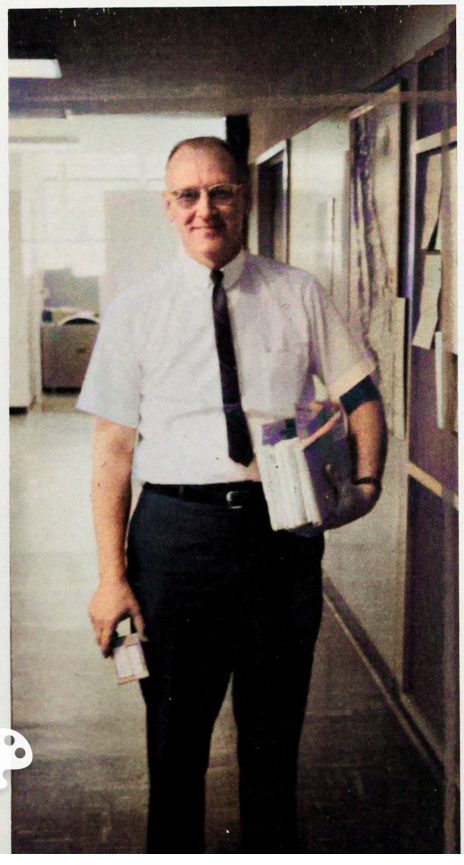
Mr. Bazil - Assistant Principal

A word of appreciation can always be heard of Mr. Bazil. He schedules programs and devises grading and textbook distribution systems. Continuation school is another of his major concerns. Mr. Bazil's effort to help students is unending.

Mr. Krogh - Attendance Counselor

Mr. Krogh's first year as Attendance Counselor has been a memorable one as he has kept track of 3000 students. His patience is appreciated as he tackles child welfare cases and deals with individual attendance problems.



Mr. Krieb - Dean of Guidance

As Dean of Guidance, Mr. Krieb is in charge of the entire counseling program. Reaching a goal is "the" problem on campus and Mr. Krieb spends many hours searching for the right program for individual situations in addition to counseling the other counselors.

These ladies are the hard working officers of Ramona's P. T. A.

parent teacher association

A word of appreciation is not enough to thank these ladies for their tremendous work on the many activities of Ramona. Their work has certainly helped many parents to understand their children, the main goal of P. T. A. Welfare projects, the blood bank, and city-wide dental work is provided by the P. T. A. Films, such as "LSD: Insight or Insanity" were shown in discussions of the teenage life.

Do you have a broken arm or is it a small scrape? In either of these cases, you might want the school nurse to aid your problem. If it is an emergency, she will relieve the pain until the doctor arrives. During the year, she makes an eye test or a hearing test of the students who have not had them. You always find assurance and a comforting word in the Health Office.

The celebrated quadrangle is the only existing portion of the campus reserved solely for Ramona's Senior Class. For almost a decade, the Quad's tradition has been maintained; even now, trespassing underclassmen find themselves unceremoniously removed from its premises. Its well-worn bricks were vigorously scrubbed and sandblasted last fall in the most successful Quad beautification ever performed! The Quad remains a meeting-place for the elite of Ramona's student body, those who have worked through almost twelve years of study and are soon to leave familiar surroundings for new experiences and rewards.

The Class of '68 overcame the problem of student apathy to finish with a successful senior year. Despite limited participation, the Grubs sponsored a memorable Junior-Senior Prom, Midwinter Ball, Quad Clean-up, concession sales, and designed an outstanding class ring. As the Seniors began their last year at Ramona, more students became involved in activities and also received recognition in scholastic, athletic, and community projects.

Faculty advisors for the Class of 1968, Miss Ostermiller and Mr. Chamberlain have counseled and guided the Grubs through three years which were often discouraging, but more often, profitable. Mr. Chamberlain's worldly wisdom and Miss Ostermiller's fresh, exciting ideas helped pull the Class of '68 through the difficulties facing Class Officers, and contributed greatly to the successes of the Junior-Senior Prom, concession sales, homecoming activities, and the Midwinter Ball.

Almost all colleges and universities in California require applicants to take either the Scholastic Aptitude Test, right, or the American College Test, above, to qualify for acceptance.

The college board tests given in the fall help to determine which students are to receive scholarship grants and college acceptance.

in memory of stephanie mc whorter

Over the Christmas Holidays, one of the finest members of the Senior Class died in an auto accident. Her name was Stephanie Ann McWhorter; to her friends, she was known as Stevi. In her case, to use an old cliche, "to know her was to love her."

She was a very friendly girl, still seventeen, who could be your personal friend, and who could cheer you up whenever you felt low. When you talked to her, there was a constant warmth in her voice and a feeling of hospitality that was overwhelming.

Last year, she was one of our exchange students to Japan, which was quite an honor. Upon returning, she said she would never forget the experiences she had had there, across the ocean. While in Japan, she met many wonderful people from all over the world, and she cherished these friends and their hospitality towards her.

Stevi was always an "A" student but her studies never kept her from her friends. Her drive and ambition never wore out--if there was a job to be done, she would volunteer. To those of us who knew her, it is hard to believe that something like this could ever happen to someone who had so much to contribute to others.

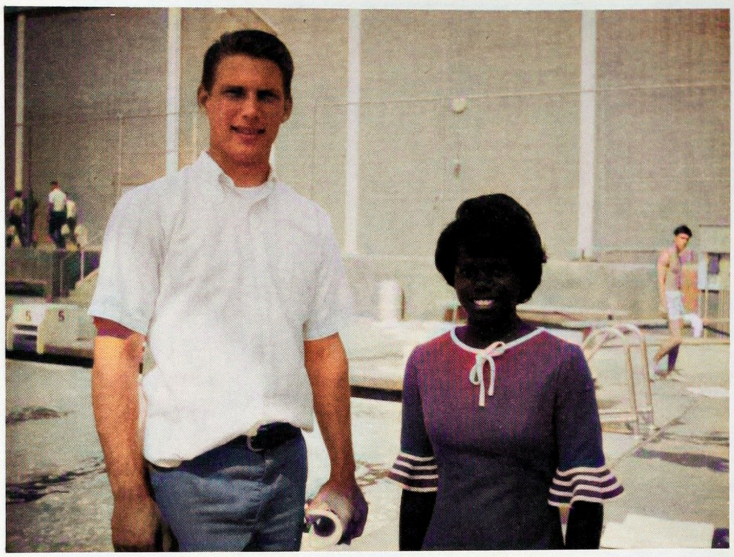
Stephanie's friends not only liked her for her good company, but also for the way she put others before herself; so she never had the problem of trying to make friends.

School isn't the same without her friendly smile, her gentle ways, and her just "being" there with us. Now there is no time left for us to tell her how much we all loved her, and we must realize that she won't be back. Her goal in life has been met and accomplished. Nothing can be said to comfort those who mourn her, only to know that someone else cares deeply and understands.

May God Be With You, Stevi.

The Class of '68

MOST WORRISOME
Jane Borstein and Steve DeMarco



MOST ATHLETIC
Rose Howard and Marc Scoville

outstanding seniors

These seniors were chosen for this honor by their classmates on the basis of outstanding character traits and achievements. Ron Jahnke and Merri Ker, the two most clever seniors at Ramona were so clever in avoiding being photographed that Merri took off in her '46 Plymouth and Ron landed in the hospital. Both got clean away!

MOST FLIRTACIOUS
Denise Fuller and Mike Donohoe

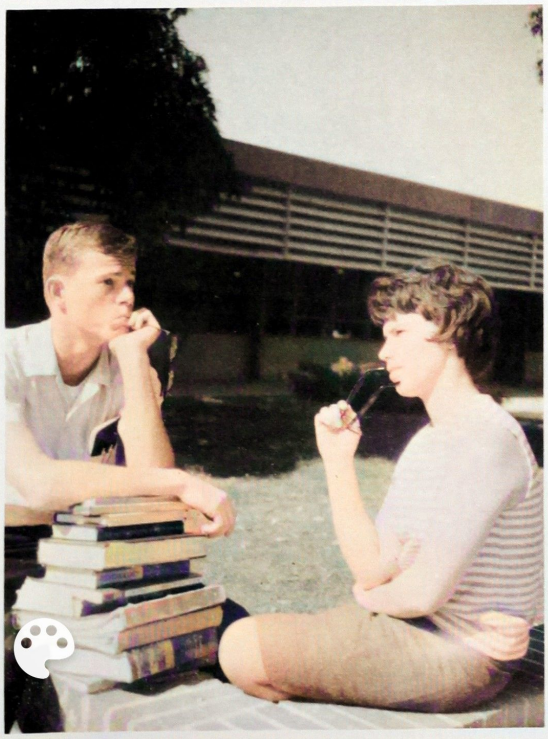
MOST MYSTERIOUS
Gwen Derr and Duane Johnson

MOST OUTGOING
Bezi Smith and Larry Rose

MOST SCATTERBRAINED
Sue Whiting and Glen Johnson

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED
Joyce Culver and Bob Hill

MOST STUDIOUS
Connie Stephens and John MACGregor



MOST THOUGHTFUL
Yoko Akagi and Hans Johnsson

Grubs, the Class of 1968, found that their Senior year was by far the most beneficial educationally and also the most exciting. There was a greater amount of participation in events such as Quad Clean-Up, and as a result, our Quad looked better this year than any other of its ten years!

The Quad has become a gathering place for Ramona's intellectuals; here they avidly engage in a controversial discussion.

Spending a "grubby" weekend in the mountains at Young Life's winter camp was a new experience for many seniors and even more rewarding for the returning campers.

Ramona's Quad has a history of growing remarkably short-lived vegetation. This tree was the first planted this year.

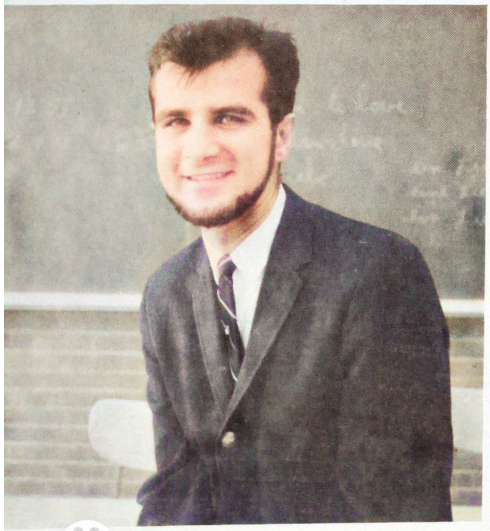
Chosen to represent the Junior class were Larry Silvas - president, Paula Bazil - social activities, Debbie Sells - pep representative, Linda Watters - secretary, Barb Ogonowski - concessions, Christy Crump - publicity, Judy Davidson - concessions, Dennis Pap - vice-president, and missing is Jon Roof - treasurer.

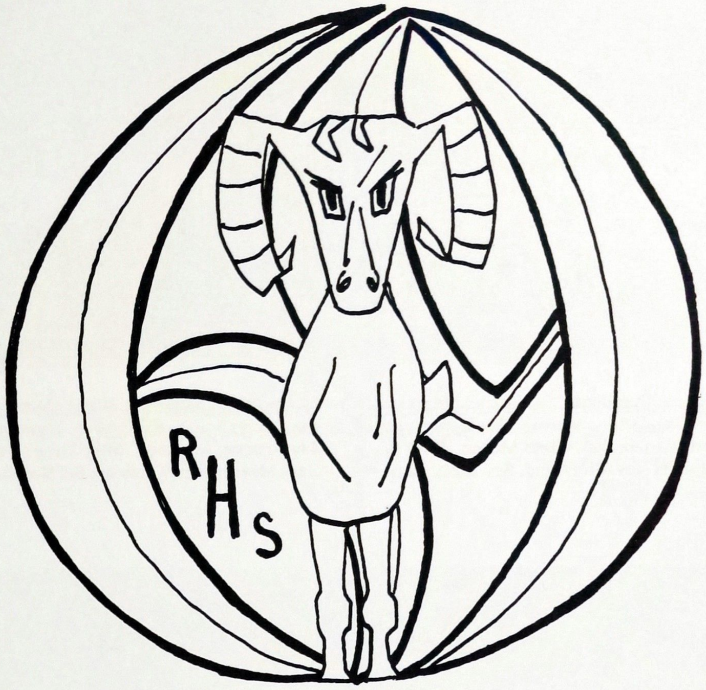
enthusiastic



Credit for the outstanding job of class organization goes to the never tiring duo of Mrs. Mellon and Mr. Lowe. They have stood behind the Juniors for the past two years, offering their advice and guidance while at the same time stressing the importance of activities by and for the students.

Mr. Lowe

Mrs. Mellon



The Junior Class emblem was designed by Christy Crump.

eagerly,

During their Sophomore year, the class of '69 was christened Zricks by the Juniors. Nevertheless, they outlived the stigma and turned out to be an enthusiastic and spirited group.

i am a zrick!

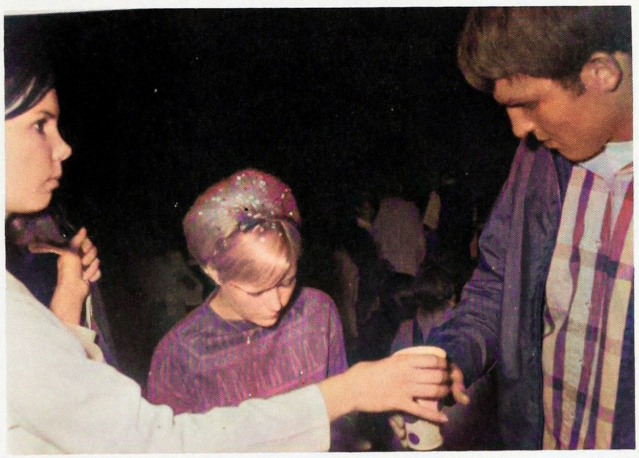
concessions,



Selling soft drinks, popcorn and peanuts to hungry spectators is no easy task. Here, two eager Juniors exhibit their powers of salesmanship.

The main moneymaking project of the Junior class is selling concessions during football and basketball games. These happy, smiling faces along with the great profits taken in for the Zricks are all the thanks necessary for the hard working concessioneers.

class of '69

During their sophomore year, the class of '69 chose for their ring, a sterling setting with a blue stone.

Mr. Dabney

Mrs. McKeever

As class advisers, Mr. Dabney and Mrs. McKeever have done a great deal of work to start the class of 1970 off right. They have prepared the sophomores for their remaining two years at Ramona and have conditioned them for high school life.

activities

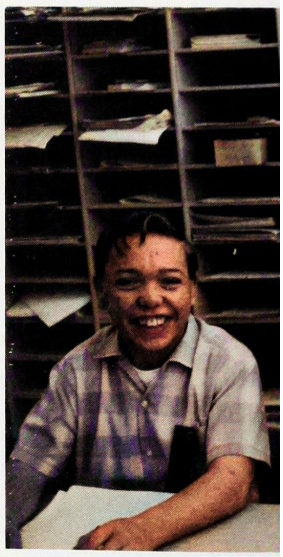
many and varied challenges confront usb cabinet members

Larry Rose, USB president presides over a meeting and brings up some unique problem which requires discussion by cabinet members.

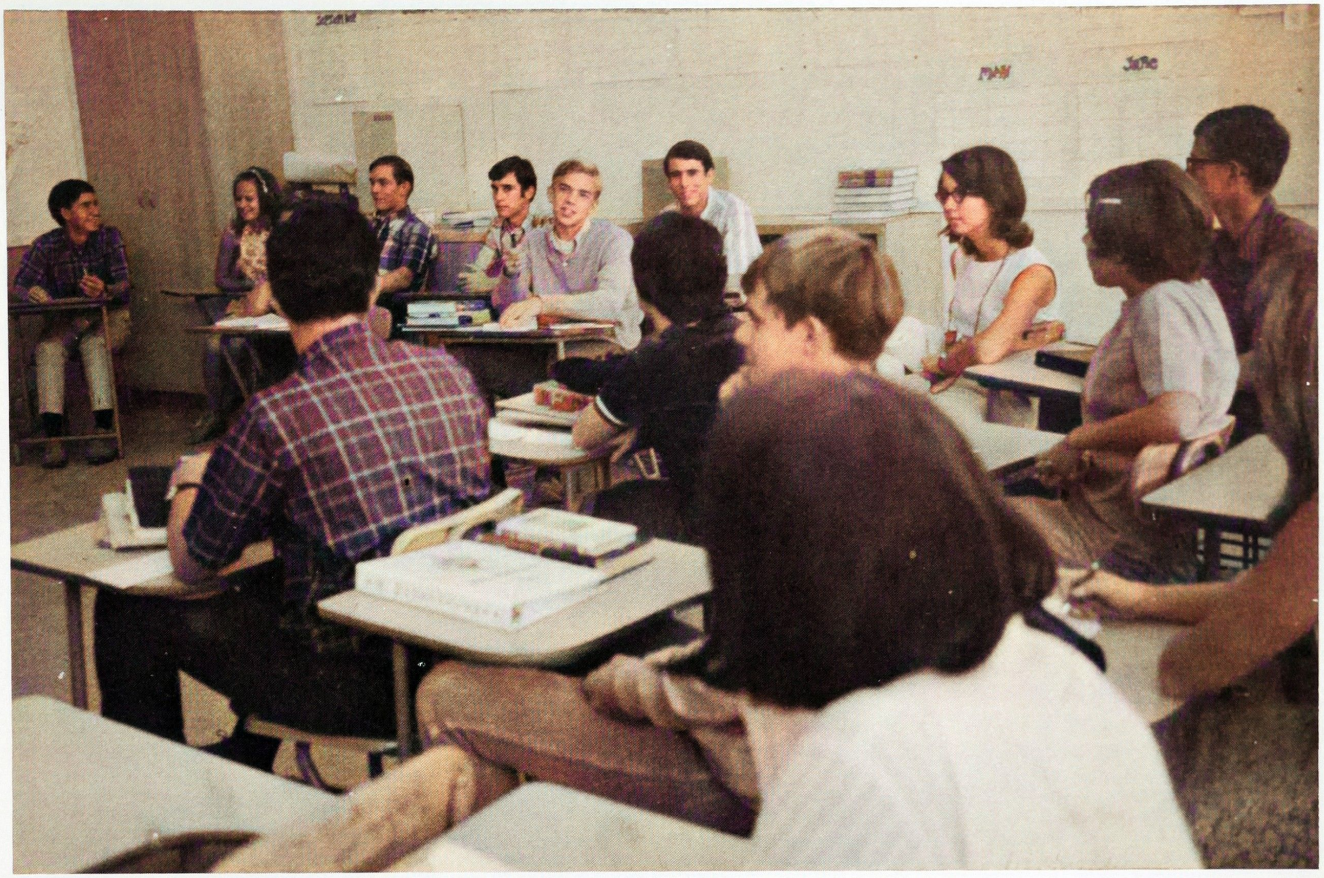
Meeting every Wednesday and Friday during fourth period, the USB Cabinet strives to make school activities successful and to solve problems which come up during the year. Student leaders discuss problems of maintaining a budget and of writing the school accreditation report, which must be done every five years.

Student Government Week is sponsored by the cabinet to instill interest and to familiarize the student body with the duties and responsibilities of each branch of the cabinet.

By passing appropriate legislation, the cabinet and Law Enforcement Board serve the students in general and as individuals.

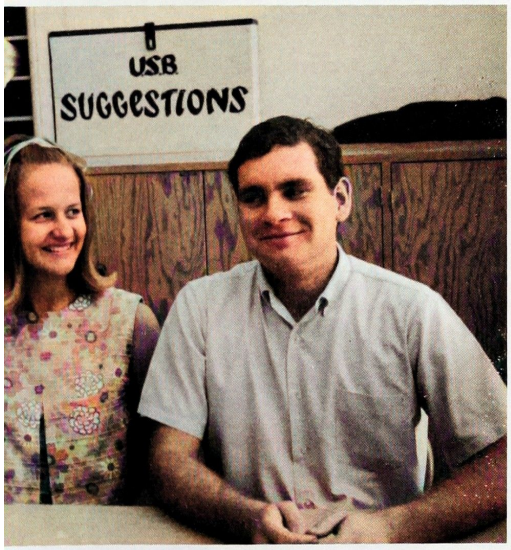


Mr. Richard Devine, advisor, offers advice and opinions on issues which come up throughout the year to USB officers, John MacGregor, vice president; Larry Rose, president; Mike Barrette, Secretary; and Steve DeMarco, treasurer.



Cabinet members study fundamentals of democracy in their student government class where they also solve daily problems encountered in running student activities.

The USB cabinet's own little pal, Steve DeMarco grins fiendishly from the morning hangout, 40G. He is obviously about to pull some devilish trick on Bob Hill, Eddi Beeghley, Larry Rose and Debbie Sells. In the background Mr. Devine mourns the whole manuever.



Members of the newly formed law enforcement board this year were Harry Dickson, Sue Waggoner, and Mike Crump.

With masking tape in hand, Eddi Beeghley helps Merri Ker ready the Cabinet booth on Club Day.

Connie Stephens tells an unbelieving Eddi Beeghley about a shocking suggestion that was placed in the USB suggestion box.

Larry Rose and Dan Corcoran tower over "Sam" Burke, Christi Crump and Judy Davidson as they make plans for the day in 40G.

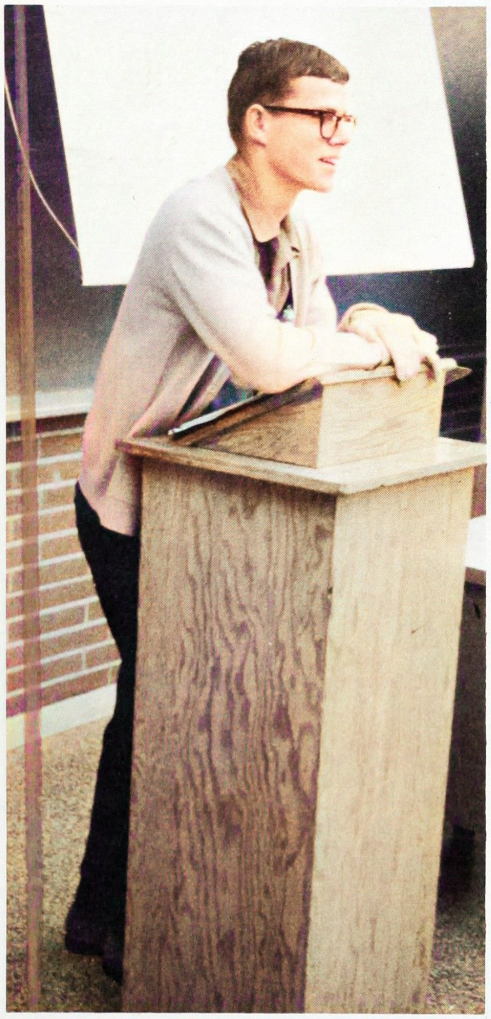
student leaders foster interest in activities

Devoting their time to supporting Ramona's activities are secretaries: Marka Adams, Assemblies; Merri Ker, Publicity; Nan Schindler, Achievements; Connie Stephens, Projects; Standing: Lorna Buster, Pep; Bill Danforth, Athletics; Laura Moore, Social Activities; and (not pictured) Dan Corcoran, Performing Arts.

Sponsoring the sales of Activity Cards and distributing Student Identification cards, Cabinet members motivate interest in Ramona's activities.

Various members organized the Tri-School Computer Dance, the Homecoming parade and celebration after the defeat of San Gorgonio, and the annual Christmas Welfare Drive.

To end the year, the USB Nominating Convention and elections were held following Student Government Week.



John MacGregor, USB vice president, presides over the group of more than 100 representatives who make up Ramona's legislature.

The Christmas tree donated by Legislature and trimmed by the entire student body brightened the Quad with its shimmering tinsel and gay decorations.

Legislature officers are: Bob Teitscheid, Sergeant-at-Arms; Maxine Coonrad, Secretary; Mike Collopy, President Pro Tem; Tony Adams, Sergeant-at-Arms.

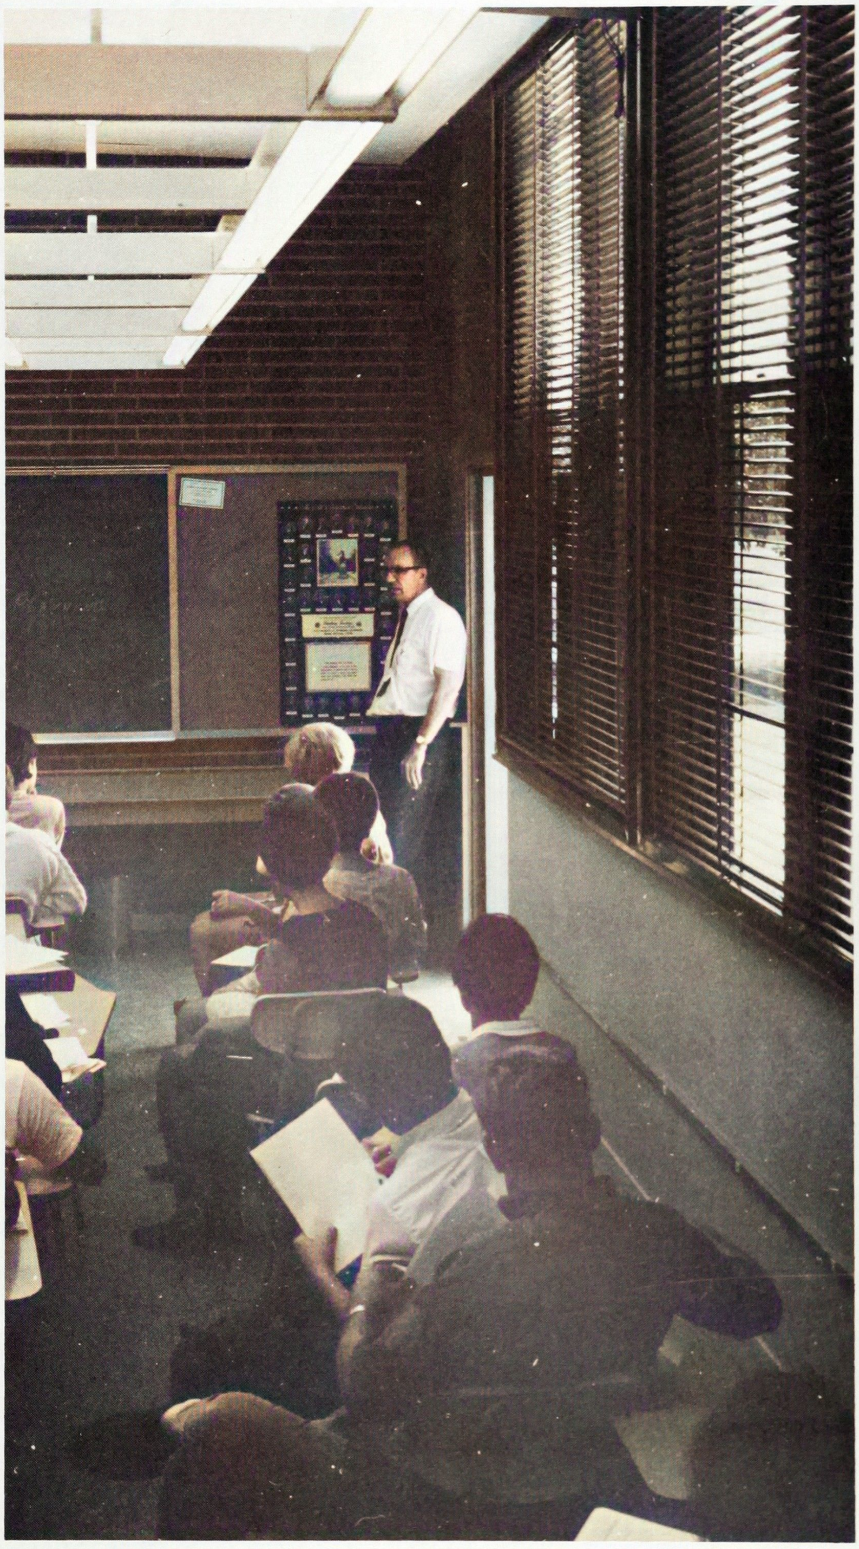
"My advisory feels that we should have nutrition. . ." Providing representation for every student, advisory elected legislators function as a sounding board for student opinions and ideas. They serve as a law-making body and check the powers of the USB Cabinet. The USB Candy Sale and participation in the School Partnership Program, affiliated with the Peace Corps, were the major projects this year.



Mr. Richard Devine, advisor, addresses the legislature at its first meeting.

creative booths influence club day success

The World Series on television in the Key Club's booth, aquariums and butterfly nets displayed by the Biological Society and the California Scholarship Federation's "Try Harder" motto illustrate interests of only a few of Ramona's many clubs. Increased membership and publicity were two advantages of the ICC instigated Club Days. In October, clubs set up booths, displayed their projects and handed out club information and application sheets.

Don Surgeon, Gary Sternberg and Doug Finch erect the altar in the Latin Club booth.

Ultra-modern, the Senior Class float, designed by John Rhinehart, is awarded the second place trophy at the pep rally.

Weeks of hard work by Karen Blount, float chairman, and members of the Junior Class were climaxed when their float, designed by Christi Crump, won first place.

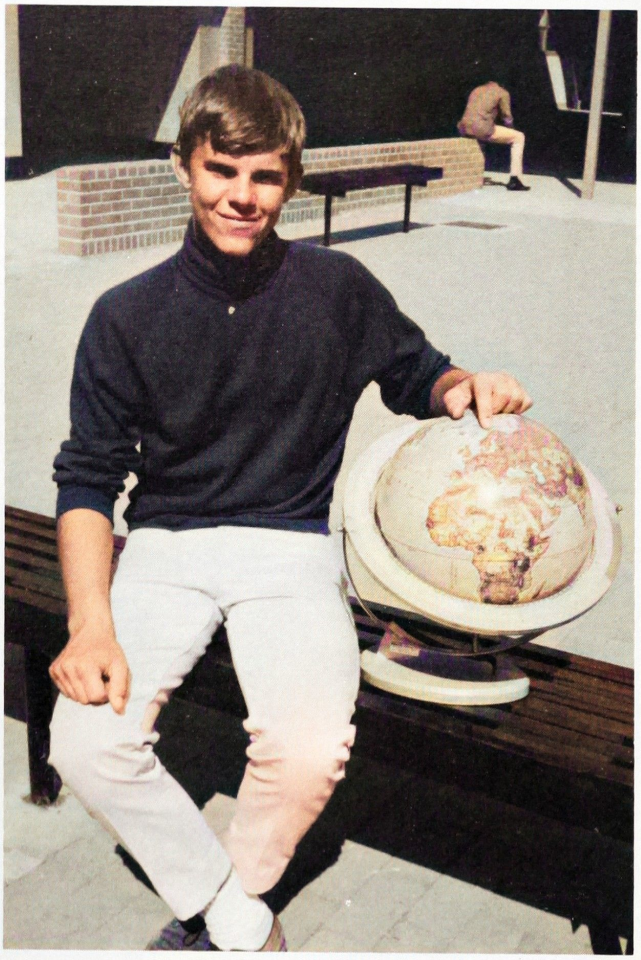
afs club strives for



"Do Swedes really believe in free love?" "When Japanese teens date, do they have to be chaperoned?" Interested AFS members are eager to learn about customs, cultures and ideals of other countries. Ramona's Chapter of the American Field Service helps support foreign students and involves them in student activities on campus. Parties and field trips throughout the year give foreign students an opportunity to see how Americans celebrate various national holidays and cultural exchange is promoted. Their major project this year was a Tri-School Banquet.

Hans Johnsson, a senior from Stockholm, Sweden, is Ramona's AFS student this year. "I have had a wonderful year here at Ramona, and I wish to thank all my fellow students and teachers. I have learned alot about your country and I hope you have learned some about mine. My great discovery is that people are people. See you soon--in Sweden.

Foreign students, Hans Johnsson, Yoshiki Asano, Yoko Akagi, Fumiko Koshi, Hideko Koshi, and Yoshiko Hidan represent the AFS club in the Homecoming parade.

twirp week

Slave Day, Hush Day, and the Tricycle Grand Prix are all part of Ramona's traditional Twirp Week. The Dad-Daughter Dinner held in the cafeteria during January and the annual Slumber Party in March were also main activities sponsored by the Girls' League. Participation in the Christmas Welfare Drive, in which they sponsored a family, was also a major project. Creating closer and more friendly relationships among Ramona's girls and serving the school and community are purposes of this organization sponsored by Mrs. Emmanuel and Mrs. Bakewell.

Shaved heads at the beginning of football and basketball seasons, blue sport coats and blue and white jackets displaying varsity letters identify Ramona's Lettermen. Each boy proudly wears his letter earned by participation, ability, hard work, and good sportsmanship in one of more of Ramona's varsity sports.

Initiation antics in January by new Lettermen amused students during all three lunches. Profits earned by a car wash, which was another initiation duty, provided funds for a memorable party at the end of the year. For an audience of avid fans, they presented a surfing film in May. Their Donkey Basketball Game against Poly High's football Lettermen on February 10 raised money for the USB treasury and delighted onlookers.

Exploring Riverside's city jail in December proved interesting and exciting for Key Club members. Members contributed time to the Danny Thomas March for St. Jude's Children's Hospital on December 18th and 19th and in January and February during the March of Dimes Crusade. By posting upcoming events on the front billboard, they kept the community informed of Ramona's activities. In January, the club attended the Riverside 500 and took a trip to the mountains during the semester break. Other activities, such as their float in the Homecoming Parade and their special attraction, the world series games on TV in their booth during Club Day, enhanced interest in their organization.

"Will you please stand for the flag salute?" Although these are familiar words to all students at Ramona, not many people are aware of who it was who led them in the pledge of allegiance each morning and kept them informed of club meetings. They announced games, dances, and other activities. They told "all those interested in speaking with a representative from all California state colleges and universities on Tuesday at 10:00 to meet in Guidance Conference Room number one." The Public Address crew added spice to the daily announcements and had innumerable reasons for buying Student Activity cards, pre-game tickets, annuals and candy.

"Who wants to buy a Noise button?" Membership for Noise Inc. increased each week as enthusiastic students went all out to support Rams. In their special cheering section at games members let all spectators know, "There's Nothing Like Noise!"

Responsible for all aspects of increasing school spirit, the Pep Commission organizes pep rallies and arranges for busses to transport rooters to away games. In October, they worked out the details of the Coronation Ceremony at halftime break in the Homecoming game. In February, they planned festivities during which the Basketball Sweetheart was crowned.

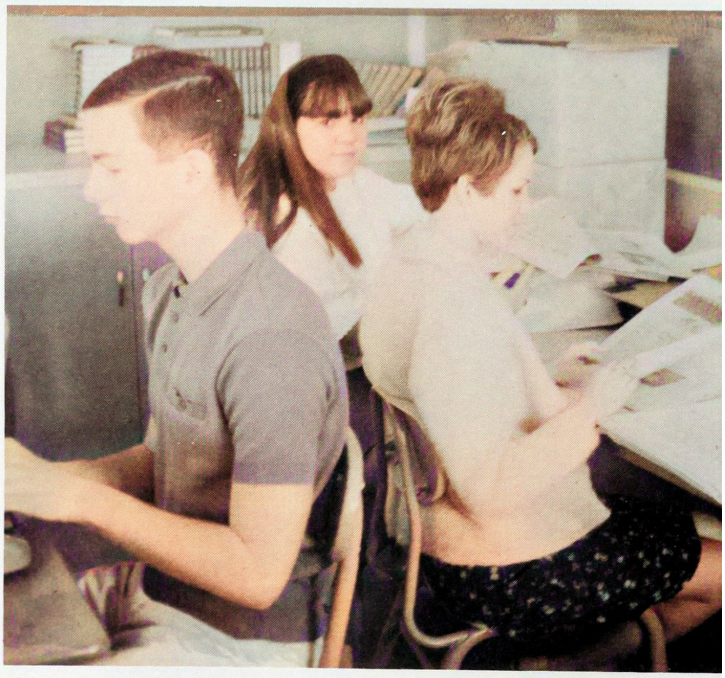
Who, what, when, where, how--the five essentials of a news story. Gather the facts, plan the layout, write and proofread the copy, crop the photos and a newspaper begins to take shape. Rampage staff members cover and report Ramona's week to week happenings and keep the student body informed of upcoming activities.



As John Halstead types up copy for the sports page, Colleen Patnode and Cheryl Headley proofread.

John Deck, our "ducky" photographer, hopefully searches a role of film for a much needed picture.

Editor Merri Ker and advisor "Grampa" Petersen laugh in disbelief as they examine some final layouts.

Student Life editors Syd Schuler and Marsha McCoskrie try to choose the better of two evils as they draw up a final page.

If "Dr." Don Surgeon, Business Manager, could balance our debits and credits as well as he can his feet we would be in great shape.

Brian Beaver, a first semester student, types final copy for the Sports Section.

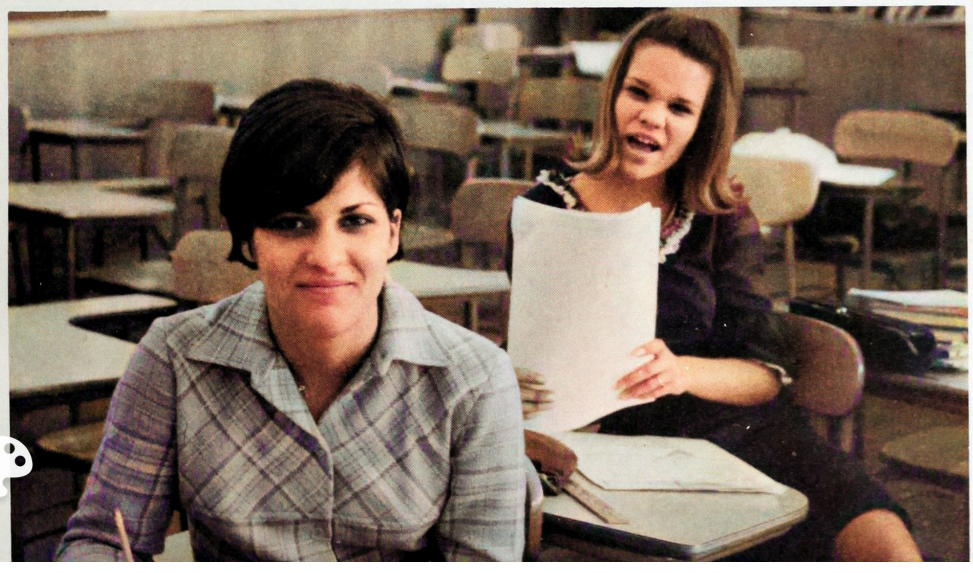
Jim Powell, faculty and awards editor, finds the layout guide very amusing.

"What do you think of this layout, Mr. Peterson?" "Does this copy sound ok?" Mr. Peterson is always (well, almost always) available and willing to advise distraught editors and patiently answer their many questions.

Selling advertisements, pouring over layouts and copy, seeking just the right pictures, just the right word, Aries staff members spent many long hours after school struggling to meet their deadlines. Checking and rechecking, the staff recognizes the importance of correctly spelled names. However, all hard work and long hours are worth while when the Aries come fresh and crackling off the presses.

Stored within its covers are many activities, moods, hours of work and pleasure which contribute to another memorable year at Ramona.

"If we ever get that one last picture, we can draw up this page." Cyndi Simonsen informs Wendi Brusca. They were co-editors of the Senior and Sports Sections.



"Some of these names are 'unbelievable'!" cries Sherry King to Karen Verani as they try to coordinate the Junior Section as well as the Advertising.

ypm volunteers attain knowledge through experience in various medical fields

To prepare young people for a medical career is the purpose of YPM. Meeting the first Tuesday of every month, YOUNG PEOPLE OF MEDICINE see films, discuss plans for the awards dinner, and discuss their work at Riverside County Hospital. There, many of the girls work as candystripers and the boys perform duties similar to those of an orderly.

They attended a seminar where current medical issues were discussed. On the last Thursday of each month, they also meet with volunteers from Poly and North High Schools. At these meetings they learn about such things as artificial respiration and the functions of the heart. Films are also shown at these meetings, hosted by a different school each month.

INTER-ACT officers are: Mr. Ben Bollinger, adviser; Tom Davis, treasurer; Phil Morsing, secretary; Mike Collopy, vice-president; Jim Luce, president.

Service to the community is the goal of Inter-Act. As a service organization, working with the Rotary Club of Riverside, members are willing to devote time and energy to any worthy cause. They took crippled children to baseball games and held a dinner party for handicapped children from the Sunshine School. At Christmastime, members helped pack food for the less fortunate families in Riverside and they delivered Christmas presents and spirit to them. Sponsored by Mr. Bollinger, the club really gained momentum this year and was of great service to the city.

csf honors life members

Producing scholarship opportunities and encouragement to students who have attained the necessary grade point average is the goal of the CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION. A banquet at the end of the year honored CSF life members who had belonged for at least four semesters, one being in their senior year. Life members also receive a gold stamp on their diploma and a gold tassel for graduation.

Graham Magness, John Mac Gregor and Bill Kingery represent CSF in their booth during Club Day.

Entering the Indian Hills Country Club on Prom night, Juniors and Seniors were conveyed into a Russian atmosphere. Elaborate castles painted red, black and silver carried out the theme of "Somewhere My Love" from the movie Dr. Zhivago. They created a dramatic mood to equal that of the Seniors as they attended their last formal dance of their high school years at Ramona.

Extensive planning and long hours of labor on the part of many Juniors made the night of May IV an evening long to be remembered.

Becky McIntyre and Mark Vandanacker pause for a moment to chat with Carlene Woods and Lynn Steele about the events of the evening.

Ram spirit ran high this year and their fine teamwork culminated in a great season. Despite an opening loss of 14-35 at Savana the Rams couldn't be held back as they charged on the following week to defeat their longtime rival, the Poly Bears, 38-13. The league games started with a hard fought contest against the always tough Redlands Terriers ending 6-13, the dogs edging ahead, followed by the unusually powerful Pacific Pirates who surprised the Rams with sudden bursts of speed and won 12-37. After a heart breaking 7-8 loss to Chaffey, the Rams regained their spirit to top off Homecoming festivities with a 27-0 victory over San Gorgonio. Unwilling to be stopped now, they displayed their abilities against the Fontana Steelers resulting in a 28-13 win. The Rams carried this spirit through the remaining away games with Eisenhower and San Bernardino, defeating the Eagles 13-0 and the Cards 27-13.

Finishing in fourth place, the Ramona Rams were honored with four all-CBL first team awards. These awards went to Marc Scoville, end, Tony Adams, quarterback, Mike Donohoe, guard, and Roger Vandeventer, center. There was also one second team award to Tom Davis, tackle. We also racked up eight honorable mentions: Ron Gies, Joe Aguilera, Al Gilpin, Mike Collopy, Richard Cox, Dave Campos, Gary Collins, and Dick Gibson.

Shattering previous school records were Tony Adams and Marc Scoville. Adams passed for a total of 1035 yards and rushed for 690 yards while Scoville received 41 passes.

The many hours spent in practice were quite obvious as Ramona fans watched a glorious season unfold.

This year the varsity waterpolo team swam its way through a terrific season. They started by over running Chino 28-15 and went on to dunk Montclair 23-1. The Rams hit some rough water when they met Redlands for a 6-28 loss, but their spirits remained undampened. To prove this, the Rams struck out for Moreno Valley and returned victorious with a score of 26-4 and with another upset over Alta Loma of 12-4, the Rams were right on top again. Chaffey doused them for a 6-27 loss and Claremont pulled them under, 5-20. Just as things started to look pretty bad for the Rams, a cross town opponent, North, tried its luck and the Rams floated away with a 16-6 win. At Poly Ramona lost, 9-14 but emerged over Moreno Valley once again the victors, this time with a 15-8 score. Ramona waterpolo fans enjoyed an exciting season of the newest team sport on this campus and can be proud of their great team.

Starting off the season with a 15-12 victory over Chino, things looked OK and when the Rams met Montclair for a 7-10 loss their hopes stayed strong. With a victory over the tough Redlands team of 14-12, the Rams were riding high, and when they took Moreno Valley 27-2 spirit hit the ceiling. Alta Loma fell before the mighty Bee's 1-0 but Chaffey hit them hard, 4-11. We returned to Moreno Valley and won 8-4. It can easily be siad that next years varsity team will receive some fine recruits.

This year the Ram's first encounter was with Chino, who lost 22-7. Next to fall before the Rams was Mont Clare 25-8 and then Redlands 13-10. Moreno Valley lost to the Rams 24-6 and Alta Loma followed suit, losing 11-4. Chaffey gave the Rams some trouble and became the first team to beat the Cees, 7-9. After the disappointment at Chaffey, the Rams met Clairmont and walked away with an 8-10 victory. North felt the power of the Rams next as they were over run 12-5. The second Ram loss came about when they met the Poly Bears. After a fast moving game, Poly won 9-8. The Rams met Moreno Valley a second time and again won, this time 14-6. The last team to meet the Rams were the Fontana Steelers who quickly sank to the bottom with a score of 13-10.

When the Rams started running this year, they had only one goal in mind, to beat last years record of 5 wins and 2 loses. The results were terrific. 6 wins and 1 loss. Beginning with a Ram victory over Chaffey of 19-40, the Rams proceeded to walk all over Eisenhower, 18-41 Fontana fell before Ramona's mighty runners 24-41 while Pacific was left in a 21-40 cloud of dust.

Ramona's toes were stepped on by Redlands but this served only to goad the Rams on to further victories. San Bernardino felt this new enthusiasim when Ramona ran them into the ground 26-32. The Rams celebrated the closing of the season by leaving San Gorgonio behind 19-36. The Rams have proved that when they want something enough, the rest of the Citrus Belt League had better watch out.

varsity basketball

Moving up from his position as "B" coach in 1967, Doug Stockham worked with the Varsity players through an often frustrating season. In spite of their great playing ability and teamwork, they couldn't make things click, and just missed C.I.F. playoffs. Although they were disappointed, the Rams could not be discouraged, and continued to fight their hardest all season.

Varsity Managers were Glenn Rahr, Mike Agnew, and Jerry Ewen.

Led by winning pitchers Paul Sagan and Ron Oglesby, the Rams defeated all comers in pre-league play, and were 5 and 0 for league games at midseason. With their fine show of ability early in the season, the Rams should place tops in the league and go on to CIF!

Crowds fill the stands for another action-packed Ram game.
